The Contemporary is a spacious family residence designed to support active households and flexible living arrangements. With a clear and functional layout, this home offers a balanced mix of shared living areas and well-defined private spaces across multiple levels. The main floor is centered around a generous great room that connects seamlessly to the kitchen and dining areas, creating a natural hub for everyday living and gatherings. The primary suite is conveniently located on the main level, providing privacy and comfort with a dedicated bathroom and walk-in closet. Additional bedrooms, a home office, pantry, laundry room, and mudroom enhance daily functionality, while the attached three-car garage offers ample vehicle and storage space.

The basement level expands the home's versatility with additional bedrooms, a large living area, and storage spaces, making it ideal for guests, recreation, or extended family use. Overall, The Contemporary delivers a practical and adaptable home design built for long-term comfort and modern family living.
