The Crest is a spacious and well-crafted home design that combines classic architectural character with modern functionality. With generous square footage and a carefully planned layout, this residence is ideal for families seeking both comfort and flexibility in a refined residential setting. The main floor features an open and inviting living arrangement where the great room, kitchen, and dining areas are seamlessly connected, creating a central space for everyday living and entertaining. The primary suite offers a private and comfortable retreat, while additional bedrooms and a dedicated study provide versatility for family living, guests, or working from home. Thoughtfully placed support spaces such as the pantry, utility areas, and mudroom enhance daily efficiency and organization. The lower level expands the home's livability with additional bedrooms, a large great room, and multiple storage areas, offering ample space for recreation, guests, or future customization. This level is designed to adapt easily to changing needs, whether for family growth, entertainment, or extended stays. Overall, The Crest delivers a balanced and timeless home design, blending open living areas, private spaces, and flexible lower-level accommodations into a residence built for long-term comfort, functionality, and everyday enjoyment.
